ELECTION ADMINISTRATORS ELECTRONIC POLLBOOKS
ADDENDUM

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. On November 10, 2009 Election Administrators, LLC (EA) entered into a contract with the Kansas Secretary of State to provide electronic poll books and related services. The contract prescribed that the electronic poll book be in the hardware format of a "Netbook." Due to advances in technology since the initial signing of the contract, EA has begun providing the electronic poll book software on a "tablet" hardware system as opposed to the "Netbook."
2. The term of this Addendum is from November 10, 2009 until November 30, 2014.
3. In addition to electronic poll books and related products and services previously listed in this contract, Contractor agrees to provide poll books in a "tablet" hardware system as provided in the attached cost sheet. The price quoted in the attached cost sheets are final and shall be held firm throughout the term of this addendum. KSOS and the counties will not be charged for standard shipping or standard delivery costs. Written requests by the KSOS and the counties for expedited or priority shipping and delivery will be billable to the KSOS or the county; provided such expedited or priority shipping is not due to the actions of the Contractor.
4. Contractor will itemize all invoices related to this Addendum. Invoices that are not itemized will not be considered for payment.
5. Poll books and software purchased under the original contract will be supported and maintained using the costs agreed to under the original contract.
